“For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”
 I Corinthians 1:18

Fall 2020

September ~ October ~ November

Sunday School is the ministry of the church that connects local believers with the Word of God and the People of God. Through this ministry, we pray that you will grow in your knowledge of the Word and in your relationship with God’s local church.

Adult Bible Studies

"Crises and Crowns"

Mixed Class

Room 202: Cal Jones

Crises and Crowns covers an intriguing period of Israel's history, beginning with the times of the Judges and concludes with the death of Solomon. We connect with the times of the Judges by studying the life of the prophet Samuel, and surveying the lives of Saul, David, and Solomon. We will watch these famous men deal with crises, and observe what happened when three of them each wore a crown. As we trace their lives, we learn how to handle our own crises and how to serve the Lord in a way that pleases Him.

"The Power of God's Names"

Mixed Class

Room 203: John Murphy

In Old Testament times, a name was more than simply nomenclature. It was, rather, a revelation of the individual. In this study, we will examine 11 names of God. God has a variety of names to reflect His different capacities of relating to us. He has a name for every situation you can find yourself in. Join us as we begin to study the names of God to more fully understand His character.

"In the Midst of Wolves"

Mixed Class

Room 204: Mike Vannicolo

Jesus was instructing His disciples in how to behave in their ministry. He warns them that they were being sent out "like sheep among wolves" The world, then as now, was hostile to believers—not incidentally hostile, but purposefully hostile. Wolves are intentional about the harm they inflict upon sheep. In today's environment, how can we advance the Gospel effectively without becoming predatory ourselves?

"Build Your Faith and Your Life On These Cornerstones"-Continued

Men Only

Room 205: Ray Tipton

We live in a confusing world. How can we stand in our beliefs? By protecting yourself and by understanding Christianity's greatest truths. This will be a verse-by-verse study of the Book of Romans.

"Letters from a Fisherman"-1 & 2 Peter Mixed Class

Room 206: Adam Davis

One of the mostly lively and personally compelling apostles, Simon son of John is called Peter ("rock") by the Lord Jesus. We have much to learn from Peter's life and especially his letters to the early church. During this class, we will read and study his letters found in the New Testament, drawing important spiritual lessons and encouragement.

"His Kingdom Come" Women Only

Room 207: Kristen Johnson

Knowing Christ is the hallmark of every believer, but how do we really know who Jesus was, who He is, and how will we know Him in eternity? This quarter's class will take a deep dive into the Gospel of John.

"Be-Distinct" Women Only

Room 208: Loyah V. & Laddie D.

The story of God's people in Kings and Chronicles must not be forgotten by God's people today, because we have the same pressure to conform to the pattern of this world. This Wiersbe study shows us that God's people were never meant to blend in. Instead we are called to stand out from the crowd and become a beacon of hope.
