SUNDAY STUDY

The Parables of Jesus

Adult Mixed Class

Teacher: Cal Jones

Room 202

Have you ever wondered why Jesus told stories instead of just giving straight answers? Join us for our upcoming Sunday morning Bible Study on The Parables of Jesus, where we'll dive deep into the timeless stories Christ used to reveal the secrets of God's Kingdom — truths that challenge our thinking, soften our hearts, and transform the way we live! No matter your age, background, or Bible knowledge, Jesus spoke these parables for you, and together we'll explore what they mean for our lives today. Come ready to dig into the Word, open your heart to what God wants to say, and discover spiritual truths that will light up your life in a whole new way.

James

The Relationship Between Faith and Works

Men's Class

Teacher: Jim Duryee

Room 207

The connection between faith and works lies at the very heart of the letter of James. The author of this short letter is concerned not only with what we as followers of Christ believe but also with how those beliefs shape our actions. James' words contain enduring practical advice for putting faith into action.

Adult Mixed Class

Teacher: Chris Redies

Room 204

A dash with no beginning and no end, continuous throughout eternity is a representation of who John called "The Word." In Revelation "The Word" is referred to as The Alpha and The Omega, The Beginning and The End. In the New Testament the Word is known as Jesus. But, throughout the Bible Jesus is called by many names, to include, The Angel of The Lord, The Lord of Armies, and I AM. This quarter we are going to study Jesus' physical appearances in the Old Testament. What is the significance of Jesus appearing prior to His humanity and what do these appearances reveal about The Christ? Please join us in examining the Son of God before He was born as a man.

II Timothy 3:16-17

16 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for instruction, for conviction, for correction, and for training in righteousness, 17 so that the man of God may be complete, fully equipped for every good work.
