

Sunday School is the ministry of the church that connects local believers with the Word of God and the People of God. Through this ministry, we pray that you will grow in your knowledge of the Word and in your relationship with God's local church.

“For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”

I Corinthians 1:18

Adult Bible Studies

"Glimmers of Hope in Dark Times"

Mixed Class

Room 202: Cal Jones

While the study of Judges & Ruth reveal sins to shun, there are also examples to emulate. There are moments of weakness, but there are also moments of greatness. God has given His people a narration from which we may learn by means of stories, the ways in which God has remained faithful to His covenant promises and His covenant people as well as the ways in which He has worked in individual lives. One very comforting point rings with clarity: "If we are faithless, He will remain faithful, for He cannot disown Himself" (2 Timothy 2:13).

"Build Your Faith and Your Life On These Cornerstones"

Men Only

Room 205: Ray Tipton

We live in a confusing world. How can we stand in our beliefs? Protect yourself by understanding Christianity's greatest truths. This will be a verse-by-verse study of the Book of Romans.

"For Women Only-Continued"

Women Only

Room 207: Kristen Johnson & Hillary Pearson

God created men and women differently; on purpose and for a purpose. Sometimes our differences can create a lack of understanding and even conflict. This is a valuable, eye-opening study for any woman who has men in her life: whether it's a husband, future husband, son, brother, boss or friend.

"One Family Under God-Continued"

Mixed Class

Room 203: John & Katie Murphy

Using God's Word as a roadmap, we will seek to understand the concept and importance of family as God intended and how the state of the family directly impacts our nation.

"No Other Gods"

Mixed Class

Room 206: Adam Davis

One. True. God. This is what those faithful to YHWH (the covenant God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) have confessed since the time of Moses. The description of Israel's God is amazing and unique. From Sinai to Calvary to the present day, it has been essential for believers to think correctly about God. In this class, we will learn more about the radical claims the Bible makes about Him and how we can better understand and embrace these as we journey through the Christian life.

"Believers Under Fire"

Mixed Class

Room 204: Mike Vannicola

Christians who think they can sit quietly in their pew will see the practice of their faith put in jeopardy. In recent years, Christianity has seen a decline in church attendance in a national movement toward secularism. This quarter, we will focus on Christian disciplines that strengthen and educate followers in their commitment to the Lord to stay faithful despite the direction of society, challenging believers to be active instead of passive.

Women Only

Room 208: Loyah V. & Laddie D.

Picture a world where people live according to their own personal standards, where believers can't seem to agree, and where people are trapped in every kind of sin. Sound familiar? While this list hits close to home today, these issues are found in the book of Judges. It's during times like these when God is searching for those who are ready, willing and available to confront the enemy. Are you willing to accept the challenge?
